

How will my application be evaluated?

The following questions may be used to determine the eligibility of the applicant:

- Does the organization qualify as a charitable or religious organization?
- Has the applicant been in operation for at least one (1) year and have a proven charitable mandate? If not, it is not eligible.
- Does the organization have a place of business in Ontario?
- Is the organization established to provide charitable services in Ontario and use the proceeds to benefit Ontario and its residents?
- Is the applicant properly organized such that it is separate from any other organization? i.e. legally, financially, organizationally.
- Does the organization restrict its mandate to any segment of the community?
- Does a significant portion of the community benefit by the fundraising of the applicant?
- Are there at least three (3) persons who will assume full responsibility for the operation and conduct of the event?
- Will the use of proceeds from the licensed event be consistent with the objects and purposes of the organization?
