- 3.3 After satisfying himself or herself that a person is fully capable of carrying out the Integrity Commissioner's powers or duties, the Integrity Commission may, in writing, delegate to any person, other than a member of council, any such duties or powers. For greater certainty, if the Integrity Commissioner delegates any duties or powers, the Integrity Commissioner may continue to exercise the delegated powers and duties despite the delegation.

- 3.4 In performing any of his or her duties, the Integrity Commissioner may engage outside assistance or consult with the Municipality's legal counsel. When the Municipality's legal counsel is assisting the Integrity Commissioner their role is solely to assist the Integrity Commissioner and not any particular individual.

5. Inquiry by Integrity Commissioner Re: Code of Conduct

- 5.1 A request for inquiry may be made in writing to the Integrity Commissioner by a Member, staff or member of the public about whether a Member has contravened the Code of Conduct.
- 5.2 A request for inquiry under section 5.1 above may be in the form set out in Schedule "A" or, otherwise, shall include sufficient information to set out a prima facie contravention of the applicable Code of Conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, all of the following:
- a) The Requestor's name and contact information.
 - b) What happened - a description of the events or situation.
 - c) When it happened - dates and times of the events or incidents.
 - d) Where it happened - the location(s) where the events or incidents occurred.
 - e) Who saw it happen - the names of any witnesses, if any.
- 5.3 Requests made under this section must specifically refer to alleged contraventions of the Code of Conduct by a Member. Allegations of workplace violence, harassment, and sexual harassment by a Member must be reported in the manner set out in the Municipality of Wawa Policy Nos. HR-002: Harassment in the Workplace and HR-022: Workplace Violence and Domestic Violence and must be reported as provided thereunder and that policy shall exclusively apply in respect of any such report.

- 5.4 The Integrity Commissioner will conduct an initial review of the request to ensure that it is a proper allegation of a breach of the Code of Conduct. If, after the initial review, the Integrity Commissioner determines that the request is not properly an allegation of a breach of the Code of Conduct, there are insufficient grounds to believe that there has been a contravention of the Code of Conduct, or the Integrity Commissioner determines that an inquiry is not appropriate for any other reason in the Integrity Commissioner's reasonable discretion, the Integrity Commissioner will dismiss the request. When determining if an inquiry is appropriate, the Integrity Commissioner may, among other things, take into account the date of the alleged breach. Further, the Integrity Commissioner shall, in his or her discretion, dismiss the request. If, upon initial review, the Integrity Commissioner determines that the Requestor has not supplied the information as mentioned in section 5.2, the Integrity Commissioner will advise the Requestor that he or she must supply additional information and shall take no further action until the information is provided.
- 5.5 The Integrity Commissioner may elect to exercise the powers under sections 33 and 34 of the Public Inquiries Act, 2009, in which case, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, those sections apply to the inquiry.
- 5.6 The Municipality, its Local Boards and Committees shall give the Integrity Commissioner such information as the Integrity Commissioner believes to be necessary for an inquiry including free access to all books, accounts, financial records, electronic data processing records, reports, files and other papers, things or property belonging to or used by the Municipality, Committee or a Local Board. For greater certainty, providing the Integrity Commissioner with information concerning legal advice shall be deemed not to constitute a waiver of solicitor-client privilege.
- 5.7 Council may impose any of the following penalties on a Member if the Integrity Commissioner reports to the Municipality that the Member has contravened the Code of Conduct:
- a) A reprimand.
 - b) Suspension of the remuneration paid to the Member for a period of up to 90 days.

- 5.8 A Local Board may impose any of the penalties described in section 5.7 above on a member of the Local Board if the Integrity Commissioner reports to the Local Board that, in his or her opinion, the member of the Local Board has contravened the Code of Conduct applicable to the Member of the Local Board, and if the Municipality has not imposed a penalty on the member of the Local Board under section 5.7 above in respect of the contravention.
- 5.9 If the Integrity Commissioner has not completed an inquiry before nomination day for a regular election, as set out in section 31 of the Municipal Elections Act, 1996, the Integrity Commissioner shall terminate the inquiry on that day. If an inquiry is so terminated, the Integrity Commissioner shall not commence another inquiry in respect of the matter unless, within six weeks after voting day in a regular election, as set out in section 5 of the Municipal Elections Act, 1996, the person or entity who made the request or the Member or former Member whose conduct is concerned makes a written request to the Integrity Commissioner that the inquiry be commenced.
- 5.10 The following rules apply during the period of time starting on nomination day for a regular election, as set out in section 31 of the Municipal Elections Act, 1996, and ending on voting day in a regular election, as set out in section 5 of that Act:
- a) There shall be no requests for an inquiry about whether a member of council or of a Local Board has contravened the Code of Conduct applicable to the Member.
 - b) The Integrity Commissioner shall not report to the Municipality or Local Board about whether, in his or her opinion, a member of council or of a Local Board has contravened the Code of Conduct applicable to the Member.
 - c) The Municipality or Local Board shall not consider whether to impose the penalties referred to in sections 5.5 and 5.6 above on a member of council or of a Local Board.

6. Inquiry by Integrity Commissioner Re: s.5, 5.1 or 5.2 of the MCIA

- 6.1 An Elector, or a person demonstrably acting in the public interest, may apply in writing to the Integrity Commissioner for an inquiry to be carried out concerning an alleged contravention of section 5, 5.1 or 5.2 of the MCIA by a Member.
- 6.2 An application may be in the form set out in Schedule "B" or, otherwise, shall set out the reasons for believing that the Member has contravened section 5, 5.1 or 5.2 of the MCIA and include the Applicant's name and contact information and a statutory declaration attesting to the fact that the Applicant became aware of the contravention not more than six weeks before the date of the application or, in the case where the Applicant became aware of the alleged contravention during the period of time described in paragraph 1 of section 6.6 below, a statutory declaration attesting to the fact that the Applicant became aware of the alleged contravention during that period of time.

- 6.3 The Integrity Commissioner will conduct an initial review of the application to ensure that it complies with this section. If the application does not comply with this section, the Integrity Commissioner will advise the Applicant about the non-compliance in writing and the Integrity Commission shall take no further action unless or until the Applicant submits a compliant application. If upon initial review the Integrity Commissioner determines that the application is not properly an application alleging contravention of sections 5, 5.1 or 5.2 of the MCIA or there are no reasonable grounds to support the application, the Integrity Commissioner shall dismiss the application.
- 6.4 No application for an inquiry under this section may be made to the Integrity Commissioner during the period of time starting on nomination day for a regular election, as set out in section 51 of the Municipal Elections Act, 1996, and ending on voting day in a regular election as set out in section 5 of that Act.
- 6.5 An application under this section may only be made within six weeks after the Applicant became aware of the alleged contravention. No application shall be brought after the expiration of six years from the time at which the contravention is alleged to have occurred.
- 6.6 Despite section 6.5 above, an application may be made more than six weeks after the Applicant became aware of the alleged contravention if both of the following are satisfied:
 - a) The Applicant became aware of the alleged contravention six weeks before nomination day for a regular election, as set out in section 31 of the Municipal Elections Act, 1996, and ending on voting day in a regular election, as set out in section 5 of that Act.
 - b) The Applicant applies to the Integrity Commissioner under section 6.1 within six weeks after the day after voting day in a regular election, as set out in section 5 of the Municipal Elections Act, 1996.
- 6.7 If the Integrity Commissioner decides to conduct an inquiry, the Integrity Commissioner may have a public meeting to discuss the inquiry.
- 6.8 The Integrity Commissioner may elect to exercise the powers under sections 33 and 34 of the Public Inquiries Act, 2009, in which case, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, those sections apply to the inquiry.
- 6.9 The Municipality and its Local Boards shall give the Integrity Commissioner such information as the Integrity Commissioner believes to be necessary for an inquiry including free access to all books, accounts, financial records, electronic data processing records, reports, files and other papers, things or property belonging to or used by the Municipality or a Local Board. For greater certainty, providing the Integrity Commissioner with information concerning legal advice shall be deemed not to constitute a waiver of solicitor-client privilege.

- 6.10 If the Integrity Commissioner has not completed an inquiry before nomination day for a regular election, as set out in section 31 of the Municipal Elections Act, 1996, the Integrity Commissioner shall terminate the inquiry on that day.
- 6.11 If an inquiry is terminated under section 6.10 the Integrity Commissioner shall not commence another inquiry in respect of the matter unless, within six weeks after voting day in a regular election, as set out in section 5 of the Municipal Elections Act, 1996, the person who made the application or the Member or former Member whose conduct is concerned applies in writing to the Integrity Commissioner for the inquiry to be carried out.
- 6.12 The Integrity Commissioner shall complete the inquiry within 180 days after receiving the completed compliant application under section 6.1 unless the inquiry is terminated under section 6.10 above.
- 6.13 Upon completion of the inquiry, the Integrity Commissioner may, if he or she considers it appropriate, apply to a judge for a determination as to whether the Member has contravened section 5, 5.1 or 5.2 of the MCIA.
- 6.14 The Integrity Commissioner shall advise the Applicant if the Integrity Commissioner will not be making an application to a judge.
- 6.15 After deciding whether or not to apply to a judge, the Integrity Commissioner shall publish written reasons for the decision.
- 6.16 The Integrity Commissioner's costs of applying to a judge shall be paid by:
 - a) The Municipality if the Member is alleged to have contravened section 5, 5.1 or 5.2 of the MCIA as member of council of the Municipality; or
